

Kisses are Yuk! by Julia Jarman

With bold, bright and simply hilarious illustrations accompanying the witty rhyming text, boys and girls – and their parents! – will adore following along with this rib-tickling book. What's more, they'll definitely empathise with poor courageous Jack who is sick and tired of being kissed – except by Mum of course!

Story Time Questions

Why not read them out loud as you are reading the story, or you can you leave them till the end and go through them on the second reading – children love hearing the same book again and again!

-  How would you describe Jack? Do you think he is brave?
-  Can you spot something strange in the lake? What do you think it is?
-  Can you point out any words that rhyme?
-  What does Jack think of kisses?
-  Who do you think is the worst kisser in Jack's family?
-  Who kisses like a Hoover?
-  Can you count how many times Jack has been kissed?
-  Is there any kiss that brave Jack does like receiving?
